SUMMER AT GW

A GLOBAL UNIVERSITY
The George Washington University (GW) is the largest private university in Washington, DC, enrolling 25,000 students from across the country and the world. GW’s critical research initiatives, the strength of our academic programs, our distinguished faculty and accomplished students have earned GW its reputation as a leader in global education.

AN AMERICAN UNIVERSITY EXPERIENCE
Students will reside at the beautiful, gated Mount Vernon Campus, which is nestled among 23 wooded acres in residential northwest DC. Surrounded by private residences and embassies, the Mount Vernon Campus is located 10 minutes from downtown and is linked by a regular shuttle service to the Foggy Bottom Campus.

Residence halls are staffed by full-time program assistants who help students integrate into GW by providing engaging social programs. These include recreational activities and sporting events, site visits to cultural and international institutions and day trips to nearby historic sites. Students have full access to university facilities, libraries, fitness centers, computer labs and student health services. Room and board is included in program costs. GW’s campus is safe and staffed by the GW Police Department, which routinely patrols the campus and resident halls.

ADMISSION
Admission is competitive and based on the strength of your academic record and personal profile, as indicated by academic transcripts, a recommendation and a statement of interest. In addition, applicants must demonstrate English language proficiency through submission of a TOEFL, IELTs or other GW-approved test. Students requesting an F1 visa will be required to submit proof of funding. Space for this program is limited. Early application is recommended.

Application Deadline: May 30, 2016
